

MEMORIAL
OF THE
PRESIDENT OF AMHERST COLLEGE,

SETTING FORTH

The advantages of a new and enlarged edition of the works of the Exploring Expedition.

FEBRUARY 19, 1849.

Referred to the Committee on the Library, and ordered to be printed.

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled :

The undersigned, in behalf of the officers of Amherst College, in Massachusetts, respectfully represents, that in their opinion it would be very desirable to have a new and enlarged edition published of the reports of the Exploring Expedition; and that copies of the same be presented to the libraries of colleges and other public libraries. The results of an enterprise so honorable to the government that ordered it, as well to those who conducted it, and which will elevate so much the scientific character of this country throughout the civilized world, deserve to be made accessible to all literary men, and to be deposited where they will be transmitted to posterity.

Respectfully submitted.

EDWARD HITCHCOCK,
President of Amherst College.

Tippin & Streeper, printers.

PRESIDENT OF AMHERST COLLEGE

The undersigned of a new and enlarged edition of the works of the Right honorable John Adams, President of the United States, and one of the founders of the American Republic, has the honor to inform you that the same have been deposited in the Library of the President of Amherst College, and are at your disposal. The works consist of a new and enlarged edition of the works of the Right honorable John Adams, President of the United States, and one of the founders of the American Republic, has the honor to inform you that the same have been deposited in the Library of the President of Amherst College, and are at your disposal.

EDWARD BITCHCOCK, President of Amherst College.
The undersigned of a new and enlarged edition of the works of the Right honorable John Adams, President of the United States, and one of the founders of the American Republic, has the honor to inform you that the same have been deposited in the Library of the President of Amherst College, and are at your disposal.